Archaeology Quest at Avoncroft

For Immediate Release

Visit Avoncroft Museum as part of National Archaeology Week (Sat 18 – Sun 24 July) and have a go at becoming an archaeologist!

Get the full archaeology experience as you discover finds, try out some experimental archaeology and even conduct your own mini excavation! Delve into the Museum test pit and see what is lying beneath the surface – then clean your finds like a true professional.

On Saturday 18 & Sunday 19th July the Vikings will be at the museum in living history camps, demonstrating cookery, weaponry and explaining how a Viking lived.

Sarah Butler, Family Activities Officer, comments, “This is a fantastic opportunity to learn some real archaeology skills, and enjoy delving into the past.”

Admission to the event is £16.50 Family, £6.60 Adults, £5.50 Seniors, £3 children, Members free.
